that Senior Hospl Asstt C. David Pillay and 1st class Hospital Asstt P. S. Ramachendriar may be promoted to Honorary Sub Asstt Surgeon's grade on Rs 100/-; that Senior Hospital Asstt Abdul Wahab may be promoted from Rs 80/- to Rs. 90 in place of David Pillay; and that 1st class Hospl Assistant V. Balasundara Subroya Mudr may be promoted to Senior Hospl Asstt grade on Rs 80/- in place of Abdul Wahab.

The Senior Surgeon has not made any proposals for filling up the 3rd vacancy caused by the death of Mr V. P. Sadasiva Row, Honorary Sub Asstt Surgeon.

In Decr 1901, the Senior Surgeon had recommended Senior Hospl Asstt David Pillay for promotion to the grade of Honorary Sub Asstt Surgeon, 2nd class on Rs 100/-, but in his subsequent letter No 4413 dated

For the opinions formed of him by Cols Benson and Smyth, please see pages 149 & 150 of the Confidential letters recd from the Senior Surgeon.

The other Candidate recommended for elevation to the Honorary grade of Sub Asstt Surgeons is 1st Class Hospl Asstt P. S. Ramachendriers. The Senior Surgeon made another reference (to Govt) in the Sanitary Section recommending the said Hospl Asstt's appt as Laboratory Asstt. While this reference was pending, he made another reference recommending Mr Perumal Naidu

Col Benson has said "He has been doing good work at Seringapatam and in the event of a vacancy in the grade of Honorary Sub Asstt Surgeons, his claim should be carefully considered."

Major Drake Brockman thinks that "he is very unfortunate not to have got his promotion before. In my opinion he certainly should have it now".

recorded at page 123 of the Confidential register shews that he did excellent work at Closepett during the outbreak of plague in that town, and that in recognition of his work the townspeople presented him with a pair of bangles worth Rs: 600/.

In his order of 8.7.04, His Highness has been pleased to observe as follows as regards 1st class Hospl Asstt J. Taylor

This decision apparently bars the promotion of Hospl Asstt Taylor also. As he appears to have done exceptional work during the plague epidemic, his case might be considered on its own merits. If a vacancy is kept in the Hony. Sub Asstt Surgeons grade he might be made supernumerary Senior Hospl Asstt But the matter is one for the Senior Surgeon to consider in the first instance.

But as the Offg Senior Surgeon has not recommended him for

Col Bruce recorded his opinion on 19/4/04 "He was accused by the Chief Court of giving false evidence, but Col Smyth, who investigated the matter proved conclusively to my mind that there was nothing against him."

for promotion, it is a point for consideration as to which of the 3 first-class Hospl Asstts marginally noted should have preference for the present vacancy.

3. V. S. Masilamony must who stood 3d on the votes taken by the permanent Senior Surgeon.

It may however be submitted that though there are now 3 vacancies in the Honorary grade, caused by the retirement of the two marginally noted Honorary Asstt Surgeons and by the death of Honorary Sub Asstt Surgeon late Mr Sadasiva Row, the Offg Senior Surgeon has proposed the appointment of 2 Hospl Asstts one of whom David Pillay is Senior Hospl Asstt, and the other P. S. Ramachendriar, a first-class Hospl Asstt who cannot at once jump over so many seniors, though a separate place viz. that of the Laboratory Asstt has been proposed for him.

By this arrangement Mr. Ramaprasad is deprived of even this small allowance of Rs 30/- sanctioned for the combined duties of Plague officer, & Supt Plague Hospl in the order above refd to.

The scale of Honorary Assistant and Sub Assistant Surgeons, as fixed by the Proceedings of Government No.6245-6/Medl.219-04 dated 12th December 1905 is as follows:-

1	Honorary Assistant Surgeon,	3rd class	- 200
1	-do- -do-	4th class	- 150
1	Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon,	1st class	- 120
1	-do- -do-	2nd class	- 100

The retirement of Messrs. Chengalroy Mudaliar and Ponnasami Pillay, Honorary Assistant Surgeons on Rs.150, and the death of Mr. Sadasiva Rao, Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon on Rs.100, have created three vacancies in the honorary grades. To fill up one of these vacancies, the Senior Surgeon had recommended the promotion of senior Hospital Assistant X. Peter, but this was disallowed. To fill up the 2 other vacancies he has proposed the following promotions:-

(M.7 . No 116)

1) Mr. D.M. Gnanapriam Pillay, Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon on Rs.120, to be promoted to the Honorary Assistant Surgeon's grade, and to be given either Rs.150 or Rs.200.

2) Mr. C. David Pillay, Senior Hospital Assistant on Rs.90;

and

to be promoted to the Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon's grade on Rs.100.

The Senior Surgeon has also proposed certain other arrangements to fill up the vacancies among the Senior Hospital Assistants. These proposals will be disposed of in due course.

Both the Councillors are in favour of Mr. Gnanapriam Pillay being promoted to the Honorary Assistant Surgeon's grade, 4th class, on Rs.150. The First Councillor adds that if Mr. Gnanapriam Pillay has lost appreciably in plague work allowances, he may be promoted a step higher by way of compensation, and given Rs.200 in the 3rd class, in which there is a vacancy.

Mr. Gnanapriam Pillay joined the service as a 3rd class Hospital Assistant in May 1877. He was promoted to the Senior Hospital Assistant's grade in July 1896 and to the Honorary Sub Assistant's grade in October 1897. He was formerly ~~formally~~ employed on plague duty in the City. In October 1904 he was posted to the charge of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital, and he has also been in charge of the plague work in the City. All the officers who were previously employed on plague duty at Bangalore were in receipt of liberal allowances varying from Rs.200 to Rs.50, but Mr. Gnanapriam Pillay was never given any such allowances. In November 1905, on the recommendation of Col.Smyth, a carriage allowance of Rs.30 was sanctioned to him, to be drawn only till such time as he continued to be in charge of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital and of the plague work in the City. But he has recently been relieved of the charge of the Epidemic Diseases Hospital, and has lost even this extra allowance.

In consideration of these circumstances, he may be promoted to the 3rd class on Rs.200, in which there is a vacancy.

The next proposal is as regards the promotion of Senior Hospital Assistant David Pillay, to the grade of an Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon. But, as pointed out in the office notes, his previous record has not been satisfactory, and he was besides superseded once before. The Second Councillor is of opinion that if, as was laid down in connection with the case of X Peter, promotion to the honorary grade should be given only in recognition of specially meritorious service, David Pillay cannot be promoted. He goes on to say that, if a more reasonable view of the case prevails and the rule is relaxed, X. Peter should get the first chance and David Pillay the next. The First Councillor considers this officer's promotion to the honorary rank to be of doubtful expediency and thinks that the proposal may be vetoed. I agree with him.

The third proposal is on behalf of Ramachandra Iyer, 1st class Hospital Assistant on Rs.60, who is recommended to be promoted to the Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon's grade, on Rs.100. Under para 8 of Government Proceedings dated 23rd September 1897, which regulates promotion to the Honorary rank, only Apothecaries and Senior Hospital Assistants are eligible for promotion to that grade. Ramachandra Iyer is not a senior Hospital Assistant, and is the 55th in the gradation list of Hospital Assistants, 1st class. Strictly speaking he is not eligible for promotion to the honorary grade, but the Second Councillor strongly supports the Senior Surgeon's recommendation in consideration of the exceptionally good work done by Ramachendra Iyer when on duty with the Indian Plague Commission and the very good opinion earned by him from Major Lamb and the other members of the Commission. The First Councillor supports this recommendation. This may be sanctioned as a special case.

I may add that Mr. Taylor, Hospital Assistant, who was specially referred to in His Highness' order of the 8th July 1907, as deserving of promotion to the Senior Hospital Assistant's grade, has since retired from the service from the 18th October 1907.

The Offg Senior Surgeon says that both of these men have done excellent plague service, have a long record of good work & are thoroughly deserving of promotion to the honorary rank.

As to Basappa Chetty it is stated that in October '06 he submitted a memorial to Govt praying for promotion to the Hon: Lib Asst Surgeon's grade and ~~his~~ the Offg Senior Surgeon whose opinion as to the claim of Basappa Chetty was called for, stated that it was not as pressing as that of X- Peter who had then been recommended to Govt.

for Consideration in submitting revised proposals, the Offg Senior Surgeon States that his promotion would be a distinct injustice as he stands 32d in the list of 1st class Hospl Asst. But it should be noted that the chief point in favor of the promotion of Nasila-moni Mudr was that he stood 3d in the plebiscite taken by Col. Smyth the permanent Senior Surgeon for filling up the ~~provisional~~ posts in the grade of Senior Hospital Assistants so far back as ~~July~~ Aug/ 1905. (Vide p. 5 of the office notes). 9/15

After the promotion of J. Submitted to His Highness.

Paper under disposal ①
(D.O Correspondence)

When Major Drake Brockman was officiating as Senior Surgeon he recommended the promotion of senior Hospital Assistants J. Basappa Chetty and V.S. Rajagopal Mudaliar to the grade of Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon.

2 As it was brought to notice that J.Basappa Chetty had been censured by Government in the year 1901 on account of his unsatisfactory conduct in connection with the grant of a certificate about the cause of death in a certain case, both the Councillors were of opinion that Basappa Chetty should not be given the promotion recommended, as "promotion to Honorary grade should be confined to Hospital Assistants of unexceptionable character".

H V

3. On the return of Col. Smyth, Major Drake Brockman's proposals were referred to him for opinion. Col. Smyth thinks that the incident of 1901 in connection with Basappa Chetty should not be allowed to stand in the way of his promotion as "there was nothing in his action discreditable to him as a plague official".

Paper under disposal ②
(D.O. Correspondence).

4 The matter was considered in Council on the 16th instant: The Council is of opinion that "in deference to the opinion expressed by Colonel Smyth regarding Basappa Chetty, this Hospital Assistant and V.S. Rajagopal Mudaliar may be appointed as Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeons , 2nd class, with effect from the 1st December 1907, from which date certain other vacancies in the Honorary grade were filled up under His Highness the Maharaja's order dated 28th November 1907. They will be supernumerary in the class as against vacancies in the classes of Honorary Assistant Surgeon, 4th class and Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon, 1st class".

5 This may be sanctioned.

Honoured Sir

I respectfully beg to bring to your honours kind notice that the Sr Surgeon has recommended 1st class Hospl assistant Balasundrum mudr to the Sr grade of Hospl assist, without paying any consideration to the services rendered by all his seniors. There are about 20 men above him and some of them have done excellent work This Balasundrum mudr while he was at Davanegere, in a case of murder after examining the body falsely certified as to the cause of death. A thorough investigation was made by the Dept Commissioner & Dr Achutha Rao & then he was removed from independent charge & was kept under observation at the Shimoga H. He also failed in the 1st grade Ex: twice. Notwithstanding all these, he has been recd for promotion which is reserved only for ~~a~~ of long ~~and good~~ service. Hence, I earnestly hope you will be kind enough to ~~do~~ ~~so~~ in this matter as there is good deal of heart-burning among the Subordinates who are not allowed by the Sr Surgeon to appeal or to apply for promotion

Injustice in the Medl - Dept

Med 50-07
Slno. 2

Sir

I beg to bring to your kind notice that much injustice is being done in the Medl. Dept by the present Sr Surgeon & Sanr Comr Lately two Asst Surgeons in the Hon grade retired from service last year Mr. Sadasiva Rao - Hon: Sub-Asst Surgeon died at Chikmagalore. Now altho there are three vacancies & tho there are men in Senior Grade of Hospl Assts with Spl merit having worked hard during famine, Cholera & plague seasons, yet he has made some recommendations to Govt. nominating two persons for the post of Hon: Sub-Asst Surgeons viz - Mr. David Pillay - Senior Hospl Asst at Serungapatam & Mr. P. Y. Ramachendra - Iyer 1st Class Hospl Asst.

The latter has not done any meritorious duty he is a junior man and there are about forty 1st Class Hospl Assts & four Senior Hospl Assts above him. He has been recommended the rumour goes to say from 60 to 120. Fine thing. I do not know how this will commend itself

2nd ly as regards David Pillay. He earned the worst name possible in the Department. He has been transfered from Malleswaram Disply, because he became very unpopular & neglected his duty. In this connection, I might as well bring to your kind notice, that he neglected to attend upon the wife of Mr. B.V. Luksmon Rao altho he had requested him to attend upon her when he went out on circuit with the Dewan Sahib And after all she died Mr Luksmon Rao has reported the matter to the late Dewan Sir. P. N. Krishna-murty. He has earned bad name similarly at Bowringpet Chikkballapur Gully, Gubbi Nagamangal Tumkur Rocks &c. He had been once recommended by Col: Smyth for the vacant post of a Hon Sub-asst Surgeon when he was acting Sr. Surgeon. But as soon as Col. Benson returned, he withdrew the recommendation saying that he did not deserve it & recommended instead one Sadasiva Rao. Such being the case how the present Sr. Surgeon is justified in recommending him for promotion except for reasons best known to himself

If the Confidential Register is perused then everything will be clearly known

The Sr. Surgeon has issued a Circular that no subordinate should under any Circumstances apply or submit petitions for promotions. for Hence we are bound hands & legs

It is therefore earnestly solicited that Govt will please consider the claims of the Senior men with meritorious service before passing final orders on the unjust recommendations made by the present Sr. Surgeon.

The Government will be glad to have your opinion on the proposals made in the above communication and also in regard to the promotion of other Hospital Assistants in place of the Senior Hospital Assistants who may be recommended for promotion to the Honorary grade of Medical Officers.

As regards Dharmarthi Basappa (Job Basappa Chetty),-- I am to invite your attention to Government order No. 2190-92-L.B.P.483-4 dated the 3rd August 1901 making unfavourable comments on the conduct of this Senior Hospital Assistant. In the light

Dear Mr. Chandrasekara Iyer

With reference to your D.O. of 9th July 1908, regarding J.Basappa Chetty & past history and how it should affect his future, I have also read the letters you refer to in the same communication, I am of opinion that the ---- difficulties in which he fell & to which you refer should not be allowed to stand in the way of his promotion.
The matter was one which happened when I once officiated for Col Benson & I investigated it very thoroughly and the worst I could find against him was that on the occasion in question he declined to act on his own responsibility ---- (causing some temporary inconvenience to a particular family) but preferred to obtain instruction from his superior officer. This caused some delay in the burial of a dead body. But there was nothing in his action discreditable to him as a plague official. A man of higher rank might have assumed the responsibility, but a man of his status could not assume such & he therefore sought the advice of his --- superior officer.

I

I hope therefore that this event in his career will not now come between him & the promotion he has otherwise so well deserved

I agree with the recommendation made by Major Drake Brockman in his D.O. (copy herewith) viz that Basappa Chetty & V.S. Rajagopaul Mudaliar be promoted to the grade of Honorary Sub Assistant Surgeon 2nd Class but supernumerary in that class as per G.O. No. 1352-3 of 11th Aug: 06
